“THE STATE OF MINNESOTA HAS NOT ADOPTED ANY EDUCATIONAL AND TRAINING STANDARDS FOR UNLICENSED COMPLEMENTARY AND ALTERNATIVE HEALTH CARE PRACTITIONERS. THIS STATEMENT OF CREDENTIALS IS FOR INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY.

Under Minnesota law, an unlicensed complementary and alternative health care practitioner may not provide a medical diagnosis or recommend discontinuance of medically prescribed treatments. If a client desires a diagnosis from a licensed physician, chiropractor, or acupuncture practitioner, or services from a physician, chiropractor, nurse, osteopath, physical therapist, dietitian, nutritionist, acupuncture practitioner, athletic trainer, or any other type of health care provider, the client may seek such services at any time.”

- Supervision: If the Client has a complaint or concern about the care of services they have received, the Client may contact the Practitioner’s business partner:
 - Andrew M. Thomas, Co-Owner: Psinergy LLC, 612-217-4325 x210
- Complaints: If the Client has a complaint or concern about the care or services they have received, the Client may also contact the Office of Unlicensed Complementary and Alternative Health Care Practice located in Minnesota Department of Health:
 - Mailing address: P.O. Box 64882, St. Paul, MN 55164-0882 Website: www.health.state.mn.us
Phone: 651-201-3728 Fax: 651-201-3839;
- Fees, Payment, Insurance: All services and pricing clearly listed on website and while scheduling. Prices for services received at expos are clearly presented in signage and will vary from venue to venue. Cancelled Appointment Fee: If not cancelled at least 24 hours before the appointment, full payment is due. Forms of Payment: Cash, Check, Credit Card, PayPal, Google Checkout. Currently, insurance plan payments are not accepted by Psinergy, though may be reimbursable by your HSA or FSA account (please check with your plan administrator);
- Change of Price: Clients have the right to reasonable notice of changes to the prices, services, or policies;
- Theory of Treatment: The state requires a “Plain language” summary of the “theoretical approach used to provide service to clients”. The Practitioner’s Theory of Treatment is: by utilizing empirical and science based natural health therapies as well as spiritual and energy based therapies I have learned and/or studied, the goal is to bring balance to the mind, body and soul to allow for the natural healing ability of the body, mind and soul to do what it is designed to do – heal.;
- Right to Current Information: Clients have the right to complete and current information concerning the practitioner’s assessment and recommended service that is to be provided, including the expected duration of the service to be provided;
- Right to Confidentiality: Client records are confidential and will not be released, unless authorized by the client in writing or as otherwise provided for by law;
- Right to Self Access: Clients have the right to access to their own records maintained by the Practitioner’s office, in accordance with state statute sections 144.291 to 144.298;
- Personal Interaction: Clients have the right to expect courteous treatment, free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse;
- Other Treatment Available: Other alternative services are available to the Client in this same community. These can be located by asking the Practitioner, the provider who referred you to this practitioner;
- Right of Agency: The Client has the right to choose freely among available practitioners and to change practitioners after services have begun, within the limits of health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs;
- Records Transfer: The Client have the right to coordinated transfer of your records when there will be a change in the provider of services;
- Right of Refusal: The Client may refuse services or treatment, unless otherwise provided by law; and
- Right of Nonretribution: The Client has the right to assert the any and all of above-mentioned rights without retaliation from the Practitioner.
